

Technicolor Dreams

UKRAINIAN DESIGNER DARIA ZINOVATNAYA IMAGINES A WORLD OF EXCITEMENT FILLED WITH JOYFUL HUES AND GEOMETRIC SHAPES.

BY CHARLES CURKIN

With its allusions to the Bauhaus, Suprematist, and Memphis design movements, the work of St. Petersburg-based designer Daria Zinovatnaya (inset) is inspired by basic geometry and color. "I like to look at simple shapes and give them new details that completely change them visually," she says. Since she began her career four years ago, Zinovatnaya has launched 10 product lines, including the 2017 Itten furniture collection shown here. zinovatnaya.com >

TALENT

Zinovatnaya describes her approach to design as making a collage. "By combining different shapes and colors into one composition," she says, "I try to find a new and interesting combination." This year, she introduced the three aesthetically dissimilar but equally imaginative collections shown here. CLOCKWISE FROM ABOVE: A green-and-red leather sofa from the Leo collection for Adrenalina; adrenalina.it. A rug from the Zoe collection for Gan; gan-rugs.com. Tiles from the Soda collection for Ceramica Bardelli; ceramicabardelli.com.

